

Bulletins are now being sent out to over 300 Old Boys and to all corners of the World. Your correspondent is working on a list of addresses unknown and hopes in the near future to be able to send out Bulletins to each and every Old Boy serving in the different forces. Each new Bulletin brings letters in return, containing many interesting items. To those who have written, again many thanks. From 'the cold blasts of Iceland, from the "go-pher" holes of our own Prairie Provinces, from Air Bases in India, from Naval bases "Down Under", come reports that the Bulletins are eagerly awaited and read with interest. Old Boys may rest assured that Bulletins will continue to go forth.

To one and all: "A Very Merry Christmas and a Happier New Year than ever before".

SCHOOL NOTES

FOOTBALL The following were awarded first team colours at the end of the season: Price (Captain), Tyler, Dobell, Wallace, Hodgson, Boright, McBoyle, Neill, Sifton, Aird, Mackay, Stevenson and Hallward. The season's match scores chalked up by Coach Kenny Jackson's team were as follows: BCS 1-Sherbrooke High School 2 (exhibition game in Sherbrooke); BCS 8 - SHS 6, away; BCS 0 - LCC 2, home; BCS 5 - Old Boys 6, home; BCS 19 - SHS 7, home; BCS 16 - Stanstead 8, away; BCS 27 - Ashbury 0, in Montreal; BCS 25 - Stanstead 0, home.

The season came to an end with the team literally and figuratively swamping Stanstead in a welter of mud, and bad weather prevented anything but a few pick-up soccer games after the rugby was over. Two of these matches might be mentioned - Old BCS Prep Boys beat Old Selwyn House boys 3-2 after 25 minutes of overtime, and a team of English boys, West Indians and Newfoundlanders beat the Old Boys of Roslyn Public School.

CADET CORPS The Corps took part in the 5th Victory Loan Parade in Sherbrooke in late October, and paraded to the Conotaph, in the village on Remembrance Day. They also paraded to St. George's Church for a Sunday morning service. The Corps on another occasion put on an exhibition of drill which was filmed by the National Film Board for inclusion in a movie on the Royal Canadian Army Cadets.

MOVIES In place of that depressing 'letter-writing' period on Sunday evenings, during which experiments in ballistics and paper aeronautics and commando raids on the pantry were more popular than literary production, the School now has sound moving pictures. First class feature pictures alternate week by week with educational pictures, but as the latter include such films as "Target for Tonight" and "The Lion has Wings" they are enjoyed as much as the features.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER As one looks out of the window now it might well be the end of November at B.C.S. In point of fact, it is, and one of the rainiest autumn terms for years is fast becoming one of the snowiest. Volunteer workers, just in time, have completed a mighty labour of love on the rink, having shovelled, hauled and spread - at a guess - thirty truckloads of sand to form a new base for the ice. People are beginning to talk hockey and skiing, and Canadian supporters are quite intolerable as their team chalks up victory after victory in the N.H.L.

A wander through the School Woods last Sunday afternoon (no - not a drag-hunt) proved that the famous B.C.S. huts are enjoying a renaissance. There are about half a dozen habitable huts in operation, and the word operation includes as usual an atmosphere like the Black Hole of Calcutta....smoke (from the stove, of course) exuding through the walls...toast being made by the simple process of slapping it against the hot side of the stove with a mittened hand and then when the mitt starts to smoke it's done - whether you then eat the toast or the mitt is a matter of individual preference .... weiners being consumed by the pound....hot cocoa cooled to drinkable temperature by being held under a leak in the roof....what price Sunday supper in the Dining Hall?

A month till Christmas, and, depending when you get this, the School hopes that you will have - or have had - a good one.
